Twenty-five years after the day in May, 1917, that Gen. John J. "Black Jack" Pershing sailed with a vanguard of U. S. troops for the war in Europe, American fighting men are arriving in increasing numbers on fronts from Northern Ireland to Australia. The pictures show General Pershing coming down the gangplank at a European port and U. S. soldiers of 1942 disembarking in Australia.

Withhold Decision on Asking Draft of Youths of 18 and 19President Will Confer
With Gen. Hershey;
Opposition Arises

Washington, May 27.—(AP)—The administration considered today a call to congress to draft younger fighting blood—youths of 18 to 20—into the army.

There was no indication of how soon a decision might be made, but President Roosevelt disclosed at his press conference yesterday that he would confer shortly with Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, selective service director, on whether to ask for the necessary change in the selective service act.

The present law exempts those under 20 from conscription. However, the 18-20 year category is to register June 30 under the nation's manpower inventory.

The 18 and 19-year-olds were subject to draft in closing weeks of the World war and the army today is in the midst of a drive for enlistments from those age groups. What it thinks of such teen-age Americans as soldiers is shown by one of the advertisements in the drive.

Addressed to "men of 18 and 19," it says: "Qualified men of your age are needed now in America's fighting army. You've got what it takes. Your mental alertness and adaptability will enable you to learn fast. You're built to take the bodily toughening of army training and thrive on it. And above all, you have the enthusiasm, the daring and love of adventure that is necessary in the making of fine soldiers."

Opposition Arises

But opposition to drafting of under-20 youths has arisen among senators. Senator Hill (D-Ala.) and Senator Shipstead (R-Minn.) are among those who have criticized the proposal.

The first draft in the World war, in 1917, was of men from 21 through 31. The second, in June, 1918, was of the new 21-year-olds. The third, in September, 1918, on the eve of the great Meuse-Argonne offensive, took in the 18-20 age group and the 32-45 group. Of these under 21 and over 31 registrants, 120,157 were inducted before the armistice. Then America had a total of 2,810,286 drafted men in an army of 4,000,000.

For the present, men with "genuine dependency" have been told they will be reasonably safe from a draft call in 1942. This assurance was given by Hershey Monday in an address to members of the Harvard Forum at Cambridge, Mass. The selective service director said there was a sufficient pool of manpower available to fill this year's needs without dipping into the 3-A's—those with dependents.

War Plants Should Not Close Down on Holiday Says Nelson

Washington, May 27.—(AP)—Shut downs scheduled next Saturday in observance of Memorial Day in any war plant should be cancelled, WPB Chairman Donald M. Nelson said today, because the country "cannot afford a lag in war production."

"We can honor our heroic dead only by showing that we are as determined as they were to defend our country without counting the cost to ourselves," Nelson said. "We cannot honor them by taking a holiday."

The Mediterranean situation is full of unpleasant military possibilities, and it would be dangerous to disregard any of them. Yet the current dickering of Germany, Italy and the dismal Vichy "government" of Pierre Laval have created such a smoke-screen of rumor that it may be well to look at the realities as they are known. These are facts, as separated from futurities:

Germany: Her primary preoccupation is and must continue to be Russia. It is, however, to her advantage to immobilize in the western Mediterranean the greatest possible number of United Nations aircraft, warships and machines. Because of her vast needs in the east, Germany wants to do this (a) by a nerve war and by military feints, (b) by using the men and equipment of her allies, or vassals, to do as much of the actual fighting as may be necessary. Given the necessary "collaboration" she could, of course, use the French war fleet to considerable advantage in the Mediterranean, but the report that she is planning to man them with German crews must be accepted with considerable reserve. It must be remembered she has taken no such action with regard to the hideaway Italian battleships. It is not certain, either, that she has either the trained personnel or the oil to spare.

France: Pierre Laval, so far, has actually delivered to the Germans little more than trouble, although that certainly was not his intention. The French, generally detesting him and regarding with dismay the way his regime has antagonized the United States and brought new territorial demands from the despised Italians, have

Captured

Chicago, May 27.—(AP)—Hearing strange footsteps in her aunt's apartment above her, Mrs. Anna Kelliher picked up a revolver and proceeded upstairs. En route she met the intruder, a six-footer, who tried to seize the gun, but she held on and yelled.

He fled and she followed, trailed by her 11-year-old, shrieking daughter and a growing parade of screaming children. When a policeman joined the chase and fired a few shots, the fugitive surrendered.

Mrs. Kelliher's gun was unloaded.

U. S. Senate to Investigate Why

Oklahoma City, May 27.—(AP)—The United States Senate stepped today into Oklahoma's primary today by calling on its special senatorial campaign expenditures committee to investigate the filing of Josh Lee, 48-year-old farmer, opponent of Senator Josh Lee on the Democratic ticket.

In Washington, Chairman McFarland (D-Ariz.) declined to indicate what course his committee's inquiry might follow.

The state election board is holding a hearing on Senator Lee's protest that Farmer Lee's candidacy was frivolous, fraudulent and not in good faith.

Bern, Switzerland, May 27.—(AP)—A parade of French fascists at Beziers in unoccupied France was broken up today by allied sympathizers in a street battle which involved about 1,500 persons, it was reported, as political discussions at Vichy centered on possible adjustment of Italy's extensive territorial demands.

Information from the occupied zone said the fight at Beziers, a town in southern France near the coast west of Marseille, was ended by police intervention.

The paraders were carrying anti-British and anti-Churchill placards when jeers from people on the sidewalks started the fighting.

Admiral Rene Platon, secretary of state in the Vichy foreign ministry, made a bitterly anti-British speech at Beziers yesterday.

Reports from Vichy shed little new light on the progress toward a settlement with Italy.

Bonuses as High as $50,000 Paid

Washington, May 27.—(AP)—The house naval committee was informed today that the Lincoln Electrical Company of Cleveland, Ohio, had handed out bonuses in 1941 ranging as high as $50,000, and that among them was one of $25,000 to a $4,121-a-year plant foreman.

Others running from $3,000 to $5,000 went to $30-and-$40-a-week employees, it was testified.

Edmund Toland, counsel for the committee, declared that he was presenting the Lincoln case to demonstrate how there could be "evasion and avoidance" of the excess profits tax through the payment of bonuses, and said he would show the need for a "ceiling" on such payments.

Toland identified the company as the leading manufacturer of welding equipment in the country, and declared that "practically all" of its business in 1940 and 1941 was for the government.

In 1941, he told the committee in opening the hearing, the company's gross sales were $24,449,213 as compared with gross sales of $13,905,059 for 1940.

Today's Accounts of Fighting on Russian Fronts ConflictingBig Scale Renewal of Battle in Africa Is Indicated in News

By ROGER D. GREENE
Associated Press War Editor

Soviet front-line dispatches reported today that Marshal Semeon Timoshenko's armies had smothered part of the German offensive 80 miles below Kharkov, while the German high command asserted that the resistance of Russian troops encircled in the same critical sector "has been broken."

The Russians declared the Red armies, smashing through the flank of a German wedge, had brought the Nazi offensive in the Izum-Barvenkova sector to a standstill in the most important zone.

On the North African battlefield, British and axis armies grappled in an apparently big-scale renewal of the Libyan desert warfare.

British headquarters issued a special communique reporting that during the night German Field Marshal Erwin Rommel sent a large armored force rolling eastward toward the British lines.

"Early this morning, the enemy were being engaged by our armored forces," the communique said tersely.

"No details of the fighting are yet available."

Reds Seen Gaining

In the Russian campaign, the Soviet armies appeared to be gaining in the fierce struggle around Kharkov.

Red Star, the Soviet army newspaper, said tank-led Russian infantry, attacking under cover of an artillery barrage, had captured the slope of a hill dominating the battle zone and were now fighting at the gates of a village several miles from their starting point.

Red Star said two Nazi counter-attacks failed to halt the advance.

Soviet reports said the German push was stopped along a river bend where Russian troops (apparently encircled) were described as now enlarging a pocket.

Red Star declared the Germans were suffering "immense losses" in tank battles flaring in many sectors of the 125-mile battle zone, with the Russians matching attacks by Nazi squadrons of 20 to 30 tanks each.

Conflicting Accounts

Accounts of the 16-day-old battle were in sharp conflict.

Moscow reports via Stockholm said counter-attacking Soviet troops had stopped the main German offensive, with the Red armies advancing in "an important sector."

Hitler's command declared: "The annihilation of Soviet armies encircled south of Kharkov is making rapid progress."

Meanwhile, London diplomatic quarters noted multiplying signs that the axis was preparing a formidable land and naval move in the Mediterranean.

Speculation centered on the possibility that Hitler was planning synchronized drives into the Middle East from three directions.

1. From the Crimea or Rostov-on-Don through the Caucasus.

2. From North Africa into Egypt.

3. Across the Mediterranean from Crete, Greece and the Dodecanese islands.

German parachute troops were reported training in Crete, and strong Italian garrisons are stationed in Greece and the Dodecanese islands to support any trans-Mediterranean thrust.

Japanese Premier
Sends Out Another
Fishing Expedition

Japanese-offered scouting parties were reported moving from West Burma toward the India frontier town of Chittagong today even as Japan's Premier Gen. Hideki Tojo threatened both India and Australia with invasion.

Lieut. Gen. Sir Noel Beresford-Peirse, commander of British forces defending the Ganges (India) delta, said enemy scouts were attempting to test the defenses of India's northeast coastal area.

Chittagong lies 220 miles east of the great Indian metropolis of Calcutta.

Meanwhile, the Chinese high command announced that renewed Japanese assaults on Kinshwa, provisional capital of China's east coast province of Chekiang, had been thrown back and that 4,500 Japanese troops had been killed in a single day's fighting for the strategic city.

In Tokyo, Premier Tojo asserted boastfully that "the naval forces in defense of Australia have disappeared, with nothing standing now to defend that country before the onslaught of the Imperial Japanese forces."

"Fishing Expedition"

Evidently a "fishing expedition" in quest of information, Gen. Tojo's repetition of Japan's claim of victory in the Coral Sea battle—discredited by allied accounts—was accompanied by a renewed pledge of Japanese support for the axis.

"Japan will do her utmost to contribute her share as the partner of Germany and Italy," he told the Japanese parliament, in the presence of Emperor Hirohito.

But, as if to dispel the idea that Japan would help Germany by attacking Russia, Foreign Minister Shigenori Togo carefully explained:

"Relations between Japan and the Soviet union have undergone no change even after the outbreak of war in greater East Asia."

"Enemy countries will, I presume, intensify their efforts to alienate Japan and the Soviet union, but there is no chance for such intrigues to bear fruit so long as the Soviet union firmly maintains the attitude mentioned."

Rome Claims Second
U. S. Warship Hit by Italians' Torpedoes

Rome (From Italian Broadcasts), May 27.—(AP)—The high command declared today that an Italian submarine had hit a United States cruiser with two torpedoes in the Atlantic at dawn Saturday.

The warship was identified in the communique as a 9,100-ton cruiser of the Pensacola class which was said to have been "acting as a convoy escort."

(This was the second unconfirmed claim of the Italians to torpedoing of a United States warship in a week. The high command announced Friday that its submarine Barbarigo had sunk a U. S. battleship of the Maryland class off the Brazilian coast last Wednesday.)

(The most recent announcement from the United States navy department concerning warship casualties was the disclosure yesterday that the destroyer Blakeley had been damaged by a torpedo in the Caribbean sea. She reached port with 10 members of her crew reported missing and six injured.)

No. 2 Man of German
Gestapo Wounded in Assassination Trial

London, May 27.—(AP)—The German-controlled Prague radio announced today that Reinhard Heydrich, reich's "Protector" for Bohemia and Moravia, had been wounded in a "murderous attack" and threatened terrible reprisals.

A state of emergency was said to have been declared over the entire Nazi-gripped fragment of Czechoslovakia and an announcement said:

"Whoever hopes to hide the guilty persons or who gives them any kind of help or security, or secretly withholds any knowledge of the crime will be executed."

A Czech government source here expressed fear that the wounding of Heydrich, No. 2 man of the German Gestapo, would let down the bars for a wave of executions in which Czechs would be slaughtered by hundreds in "mass executions of innocent people on a scale unprecedented—even in this war."

Restrictive Labor
Legislation Comes
Up in House SoonAgitation for Wage and Hour Controls Being Revived at Capital

Washington, May 27.—(AP)—Congressional advocates of restrictive labor legislation studied today the possibility—and wisdom—of attempting to gain a house vote on wartime wage and hour controls when it considers a bill making labor unions liable to prosecution under the 1943 anti-racketeering act.

One southern representative, active in the fight for a showdown on the issue, said he was exploring the parliamentary technicalities of the subject to find out whether an attempt to broaden the measure to include wage and hour restrictions could be blocked on points of order.

The bill, setting up stiff penalties for interference with interstate commerce, was approved by the house judiciary committee yesterday over the opposition of spokesmen for the American Federation of Labor and the Congress of Industrial Organizations.

Rep. Smith (D-Va.), author of several bills to curtail union activity during the emergency, declared that he was opposed to jeopardizing the chances of the measure by "loading it down" with any additional labor legislation.

Farmers For Bill

The newly-approved measure was drafted by Rep. Hobbs (D-Ala.). While it does not mention labor unions as such, he said that it was designed to offset a recent supreme court ruling that unions were beyond the scope of the 1943 act. That ruling was handed down in a New York teamsters case.

Farm group spokesmen urged the bill's approval, contending that union agents, especially in the New York area, had compelled drivers of trucks carrying farm produce to employ union men to help them unload and in some cases had seized the trucks or their contents.

"Highway robbery," said Hobbs, "is highway robbery whether the perpetrator holds a union card or not."

A maximum penalty of ten years imprisonment and a $10,000 fine would be set up under terms of the legislation.

Report Third Sub
Sunk Off Brazil

Rio de Janeiro, May 27.—(AP)—An unconfirmed report from Recife today said a United States warship, answering the call for help on May 18 of the Brazilian freighter Commandante Lyra, chased the undersea attacker and was believed to have sunk it.

This was the third enemy submarine reported sunk in waters off Brazil in nine days. American bombers sank one U-boat near Fernando Noronha, about 125 miles off Brazil's northeast coast, last Friday, the pilots declared, and another was reported sent to the bottom yesterday off Recife.

The Commandante Lyra was at first abandoned by its crew which was later put aboard and towed to port by a United States warship.

The freighter's captain, Severino Sotero, said United States patrol planes signaled for help almost immediately after his ship

Federal Regulation of Rents Imposed on 20 Communities

Washington, May 27.—(AP)—Federal regulation of rents will be imposed June 1 in 20 war-congested areas which the Office of Price Administration said today had failed to take local action.

The score of communities was the first group of defense rental areas designated by Price Administrator Leon Henderson on March 2 and given 60 days to cut rents voluntarily back to prescribed levels.

"In no area was it found that the price administrator's recommendation as to reduction of rents has been met for the community as a whole," the OPA said.

"Since the areas have not met Henderson's recommendations in the 60 days provided by the (price controls) statute, the price administrator was requested to make federal control effective."

The new levels become effective for every type of housing accommodations, even including trailers, with rents payable for the month of June.

Reductions Automatic

The reductions will be automatic, OPA said, adding that the landlord's approval "is not necessary."

"Beginning June 1, as a general principle with a few exceptions, tenants are to cut their rents back to what was being charged on the maximum rent date set for their respective areas," the OPA statement specified. "No matter whether the tenant pays his rent daily, weekly or monthly, he is to pay only what the same accommodations were bringing on the maximum rent date."

In 14 of the areas rents were ordered restored to the levels of April 1, 1941. These were Detroit, Mich.; Bridgeport, Conn.; Akron, Ohio; Birmingham, Ala.; Canton, Ohio; Hartford-New Britain, Conn.; Schenectady, N. Y.; Waterbury, Conn.; Wilmington, N. C.; Ravenna, Ohio; Hampton Roads, Va.; Puget Sound, Wash.; Mobile, Ala.; and Youngstown-Warren, Ohio.

In four of the areas—San Diego, Calif.; Burlington, Iowa; South Bend, Ind.; and Columbus, Ga.—rents were restored to Jan. 1, 1941 levels, and in two—Cleveland, Ohio and Wichita, Kas.—the base date was July 1, 1941.

Enviros Included

The areas take in territory surrounding the city in most cases and embrace a total of 9,000,000 persons. Eleven of the areas have been enlarged since the original designation, but the new action does not apply to the extended portions.

Since the original March designation, 322 additional defense rental areas have been named, 19 of them yesterday. The procedure followed today will be duplicated in the case of any of the others

But Licker is a police lieutenant who has studied laws on misleading advertising, and that's why Tony Colosa was held today for trial on a charge of violating that section of the penal law.

All I asked for was a shave," Lieutenant Licker told the court. "As far as needing a 'refresher' goes, look—"

Except for a fringe of hair, Lieutenant Licker is bald.

An initial six weeks training course will be required with emphasis being given on leadership, administration and military procedure. The term of service is for the duration of the war and for not more than six months thereafter. Women accepted will be supplied appropriate uniforms, insignia and accessories by the government and will be entitled to a 30 day furlough each year.

Units of the corps may be assigned duties wherever units of the Army may be stationed at home or abroad where they will be enrolled for non-combatant duties. Married women are eligible to enlist in the Corps.

Attorney General's Statement Pledges
Action on EvidenceAlleged Fees - Exactor Says He's Victim of
'Smear' Campaign

Springfield, Ill., May 27.—(AP)—An assertion by George W. Ziller of Western, Ill., that he was the victim of a "smear campaign" in an official inquiry into ordinance plant job fee complaints brought from Attorney General George F. Barrett today the statement that his investigation will continue and that "when the evidence is all in we shall start prosecutions."

Ziller's statement was made last night through his attorney, Joseph A. Londrigan of Springfield, after they returned here from Bloomington where Londrigan said he "offered to surrender" Ziller to State's Attorney Clifford N. Coolidge if a warrant existed for his arrest. None existed, so Ziller returned to the residence he has maintained here in recent months.

Londrigan quoted Ziller as denying he ever exacted fees ranging up to $300 from truckers and laborers who obtained jobs at the Kankakee and Elwood ordinance plants near Joliet. State and federal officials have been investigating such allegations for several days. Londrigan said Ziller merely collected union fees and dues.

In a prepared statement today, Attorney General Barrett made his first formal statement on the progress of the state investigation. The statement said in part:

Barrett's Statement

"The trial of our inquiry led from fee-paying workmen to politicians, thence to Ziller, and from him to the unions, for whom he collected big initiation fees and dues. The politicians used Ziller to represent them in placing their followers in jobs."

"We have evidence to show that Ziller was the chief dispenser of jobs when the Wilmington and Kankakee ordinance place plants were being built. We have evidence to show that he was preparing to get, with the aid of discredited union bosses, control over hundreds of jobs at the Illinois (ordinance) plants east of Springfield, x x x."

"We are no longer dealing with suppositions and abstractions. Ziller has admitted placing men in jobs at the behest of many politicians. We have the statement of labor officials in Joliet that they permitted Ziller to collect dues and to boss job placements. Politicians have been shown in a tie-up with Ziller. They accepted his self-appointed czarship of jobs and sent hundreds of men to him."

Has Many Statements

"We have statements of many laborers and truckers who say they got work through this mill and paid heavily for the privilege by high fees, advanced payments to Ziller and weekly remittances and dues to the Democratic club he founded and operated in Western, Ill. These men had to buy jobs or have none."</

Petition for Geneva Co. Primary Recount Dismissed by Court

Geneva, Ill., May 27.—(AP)—A petition for recount in the recent Republican primary election for Kane county sheriff, filed in behalf of Col. James A. Sanders of North Aurora, was dismissed by County Judge Olney C. Allen, yesterday upon request of Sanders' counsel. Sanders was third in the three-man contest, the nomination going to George E. # Progress in Plans to Start Christian Education in Dixon

Council Now Receiving Applications for Instructors in Course

A program of Christian education for the school children of Dixon has been assured as the result of a recent financial campaign conducted in the city. The amount of money pledged and contributed has gone over the top of what was expected, by a large amount. At a recent meeting of the executive committee of the Council of Christian Education it was decided to deposit all the money not needed for this year's budget. This will be held intact and not used until next year. This action was taken in view of the uncertainty of financial possibilities in the future. F. A. Hanson served as chairman of the campaign committee.

A committee for week day Christian education has been appointed and is now receiving applications for the position of supervisor and instructor of the courses which will be taught to pupils of the fourth, fifth and sixth grades who have parents' permission to take the course. The Rev. B. Norman Burke of St. Luke's Episcopal church is chairman of this committee. Other members have been appointed to provide for representation of the various groups of Protestant churches: Dr. F. L. Blewfield of the Methodist church, the Rev. C. L. Wagner of Immanuel Lutheran church; the Rev. W. J. Martz of Christian & Missionary Alliance Tabernacle, Mrs. Clyde Lenox of the Church of the Brethren, Mrs. Guy Davis of the Presbyterian church, Mrs. Wilbur Schreiner of Grace Evangelical church and Walter Rice of the First Baptist church. The Rev. R. W. Ford of the First Christian church will be an ex-officio member of the committee as president of the Council. Superintendent of Schools A. H. Lancaster and a representative of the school board will also serve as ex-officio members of the committee.

To Open Office
A regular office will be opened as soon as possible and a part time office secretary employed to care for the detail work. The Council will hold its next meeting on Monday evening, June 8, at the Loveland Community house at 7:30 p. m. The council is composed of 60 persons representing fourteen churches who are interested in this project. By that time it is hoped that a teacher may be secured to recommend to the Council for employment.

The finances of the council will be under the direction of local businessmen, with C. L. McLean as chairman, and Clyde Lenox, Wendell Drummond, Leo Heckman and John Salzman also as members of the committee. All accounts will be audited and a report made of the expenditures at the end of the year. Any additional contributions for this work should be made to C. J. McLean at the I. N. U. office.

Radio operators for the Navy will be trained at Northwestern University. First group of 250 men will be graduated in October after a four months' course, and 250 more will graduate each month.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE —

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour 2 pints of bile juice into your bowels every day. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food may not digest. It may just decay in the bowels. Then gas bloats up your stomach. You get constipated. You feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk.

It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these 2 pints of bile flowing freely to make you feel "up and up." Get a package today. Take as directed. Effective in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. 10c and 25c.

SHE: Oh, all right Bob, but what about the tires and the battery and all the other things it might need?

HE: Right... everything should be attended to. Gosh!... can't you take some responsibility for the car?

SHE: All right, smarty... I have taken the responsibility. I joined the Once-a-Week Club today.

HE: Great Caesar's ghost! Another club! Didn't we just agree last night to cut out unnecessary expenses?

SHE: That's exactly what we are doing. This is a club without any dues, fees or anything.

HE: I'm listening... proceed with caution!

SHE: Well, you know that nice Conoco station over on Myrtle Street? I went in there this morning and Mr. Blevins, the Mileage Merchant, told me he would go over our car every Thursday morning; check the tires, the battery, water... in fact, everything... and if he saw anything needed, he would write it down for me.

HE: Atta girl! This war will make a business woman out of you yet!

SHE: Oh, yeah? Well, I may be a business woman, my dear, but I'm going to get a permanent this afternoon just to prove I'm still a female... and the price will be charged up to the extra life of our car and the savings we're going to have because of that Conoco Once-a-Week Club.

NEXT MONDAY is ELECTION DAY!

A VERY IMPORTANT ONE

You will vote Monday for a Supreme Court justice.

With great wisdom, the makers of the Illinois Constitution provided that election of Supreme Court justices be held at a time and for a term wholly different from any other election. The position of Justice of the Supreme Court is not a prize to be fought for by ambitious politicians, nor is it a commodity to be passed around, to become the spoils of party victory.

Monday, then, you will be called upon to decide if Judge Elwyn R. Shaw, whom you chose in 1933, is to continue as your judge from northern Illinois. In the past nine years his worth to you as a jurist who has served the cause of justice well has been proved under close scrutiny of litigants and lawyers, of State and citizens.

JUDGE ELWYN R. SHAW

Is Your Judge from Northern Illinois on the Illinois Supreme Court

KEEP HIM THERE BY VOTING FOR HIM AT THE JUDICIAL ELECTION NEXT MONDAY (not Tuesday as usual) JUNE 1

Judge Fulton Makes Tour of County and Is Honored in Eve

All Republicans Urged to Go to Polls Next Monday and Vote

Hon. William J. Fulton of Sycamore, Republican candidate for justice of the Supreme Court of Illinois, yesterday afternoon completed a tour of Lee county, which terminated in a large gathering at the Brinton Memorial Masonic Temple. More than 350 Republicans from Lee and adjoining counties were present at the dinner meeting which closed the county campaign, preliminary to the election to be held next Monday.

Each of the several speakers on the program at the close of the banquet last evening urged the Republican voters of Lee county to go to their polling places Monday and cast their ballot to insure Judge Fulton's election. The success of Judge Fulton's election next Monday, the speakers declared, would have a telling effect on next November's general election in Illinois.

Several of the speakers took exception to the present incumbent, Justice Elwyn R. Shaw of Freeport, who was said to be opposing the injection of politics into the judiciary at this time. The speakers referred to the Freeport jurist's campaign nine years ago when he pleaded to be elected to support the New Deal policies and President Roosevelt.

Lyons Feature Speaker
Richard J. Lyons of Libertyville, one of the best known Republican orators of the middle west, who has been assisting in Judge Fulton's campaign, came to Dixon last evening, and was accorded a hearty reception. Lyons, who has spoken here on previous occasions, has lost none of his fervor and his appearance featured the evening program.

"If there were more Republican county chairmen in Illinois of the same caliber as Henry C. Warner of Lee county, there never would have been a New Deal in Illinois," Lyons said. Referring to the charges that politics is being injected into the judiciary, Lyons stated that the Republicans are making no attempt or effort to evade this issue but are honest enough to admit it, and cited Cook county as an example to be considered.

"This campaign is merely a prelude to what is going to happen in Illinois next November, when the Republicans of this state are going to re-elect that courageous and deserving candidate, U. S. Senator C. Wayland Brooks," Lyons said. "Next Monday's election is most important in Illinois and it is highly important that every Republican voter go to the polls and vote. A Republican victory in this supreme court district next Monday will act as a tonic to many counties throughout the state," he said.

Vernon Nickell Speaks
Vernon Nickell of Champaign, Republican candidate for superintendent of public instruction, was another distinguished guest at the dinner and program. During his brief talk, he referred to the New Deal educational system dictated from Washington and cited the National Youth Administration program in Illinois as an example, having a sinister purpose behind it.

"The educational system of Illinois and every other state belongs in the hands of the people and if and when they want to change or alter it, that is their privilege," he said.

Judge Fulton in closing his campaign in the district, pledged himself to exert to his highest ability every effort to see that no person, corporation or labor group suffers an injustice as long as he remains a member of the Supreme Court of Illinois. The life, liberty and property of the citizens of the state, he said, were in the hands of this body.

Judge Franklin J. Stransky of Savanna, who opposed Judge Fulton in the primary election, and has taken an active part in behalf of the Sycamore jurist's campaign, said:

"Justice Shaw in 1933 had an idea which he succeeded in conveying to the voters of this district, that his election would uphold the hand of President Roosevelt. Now he wants to keep politics out of the judiciary. Had he been sincere in this belief he would never have permitted his nomination as a Democratic candidate, but could have run as an independent nominee. He has made no effort to keep politics out of the judiciary nor has President Roosevelt, who has appointed 134 judges, not one of which is a Republican. Judge Shaw went into office during a landslide and he will go out of office in the same manner."

H. C. Warner, chairman of the Lee county Republican central committee, presided as chairman during the evening. Dr. Floyd Blewett, pastor of the First Methodist church, pronounced the invocation and Mayor William Slothower gave the welcoming address. During the evening several prominent visitors were presented.

Women of Britain Grateful to Lee County Red Cross

Miss Frances Patrick, executive secretary of the Lee County chapter of the American Red Cross, is the recipient of a letter of gratitude from the Women's Voluntary Services for Civil Defence of England, expressing to the Lee county organization appreciation for the war relief effort in that country. The letter which was written April 15th, was received in Dixon Monday by Miss Patrick and was accompanied by a number of illustrated booklets which describe the work being done among the children of England with funds supplied by the American Red Cross.

The letter to the members of the Lee County Red Cross chapter reads as follows:

Women's Voluntary Services for Civil Defence.
41 Tothill Street,
Westminster,
London, S. W. 1.
15th April, 1942.

President: H. M. The Queen.
Chairman: The Dowager Marchioness of Reading, D. B. E.
To the American Red Cross.

Many months have passed since the American Red Cross appointed Women's Voluntary Services for Civil Defence to administer their civilian relief programme in Great Britain: months in which a whole world has changed—in which the people of this country have been called upon to endure hardships and face horrors they never could have imagined but which they have faced dauntlessly. They have—thanks to you—been helped greatly in so doing by the sympathy and generosity of the people of the United States.

Men, women and children in Great Britain have seen their homes devastated, their dear ones killed—every possession lost—and they have turned for help to find it already there waiting: hot drinks and food from your mobile canteens, delicious sustaining chocolate in the Rest Centres, blankets to cover them, the warm garments you have made with which to set forth on their daily work.

So the name of the American Red Cross has become a magic one to those in distress. It has forged a bond of real friendship for many thousands of individuals to whom the United States was before only a name.

Stille Reedine,
Chairman.

MENDOTA

Case Is Settled

Judge Elmer E. Roberts Monday signed an order in Circuit court at Ottawa, authorizing a $150 settlement in the death claim of the heirs of the late Eugene Ball, Mendota, against the Burlington railroad.

Jarrit Ball, administrator of the estate, filed a petition, asking that the settlement be authorized.

The petition set forth that Eugene Ball met death last Feb. 6, when walking between the tracks of the Burlington railroad near 15th avenue, Mendota. The accident occurred near or at an underpass, the petition said, as Eugene Ball was walking in front of a locomotive.

The petition set forth that the railroad claimed Eugene Ball was trespassing at the time of the accident, and that in addition to paying the $150 settlement, the railroad had agreed to pay $237 funeral bills and outstanding accounts.

Germany Desperate; Making Gasoline of Deteriorated Tires

New York, May 27.—(Wide World)—Germany is making gasoline out of old rubber tires, those too deteriorated to be useful for reclaimed rubber.

The tires produce coke and tars and from the latter come gasoline, Diesel oil and other oils. The quality is said not to be high.

The tire gasoline is made by the Berlin Institute of Lignite and Mineral Oil Research, and is reported in the current Petroleum Times.

In the opinion of American petroleum chemists, the rubber research indicates the desperation of German search for substitute fuels.

A Thought for Today

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.—Psalms 23:1.

The careful pilot of my proper woe.—Byron.

Fifth Columnists

The layman, who tends to be impressed by the presumed exactness of all scientists, would expect Philadelphia psychiatrists speaking in Boston to be meticulous in their terminology.

Perhaps the two who discussed subversive propaganda techniques before the American Psychiatric Association recently were scientifically accurate in their choice of words, but the summarization given the public in news reports contains certain implications important enough to demand clarification.

Twenty-five "fifth column" techniques "for producing disunity" were discussed by the eminent psychiatrists. Those described in press reports unquestionably were dangerous, undesirable, disruptive of national unity, helpful to the enemies of this country. They were and are types of activity in which we should not indulge while we are at war, if ever.

But many if not most were not originated by the fifth column and are not confined to its operations.

"Magnifying small details until they obscure the main issue," is one such technique. We used to call it "not being able to see the forest for the trees." Of all mental weaknesses of the human race, innocent in origin and intent though often dangerous in practice, none is more universal than this inability to see through trimmings to truths.

"Inciting capital against labor, and vice versa." There's another fifth column technique, say the psychiatrists. True enough. But are we going to smear President Roosevelt with the epithet "fifth columnist" because he has spent years in pursuit of the psychiatrists' vice versa—inciting labor against capital? Silly? Certainly. So the test falls in its first and most natural trial.

"Extracting irrelevant and long issues for current use" is a third technique. Next to the inability to see the main issue through surrounding details, probably there is no more innocent but misleading fallacy more universal in mankind.

And finally, for our purposes, the psychiatrists cite one of the most vicious of present day evils—"magnifying religious or racial issues by appeals to intolerance or prejudice."

This can not be condemned in too strong words. Yet it is not, per se, the test of a fifth columnist. There are many narrow, misguided men and women who are ardently, bitterly and vituperatively bigoted in racial and religious matters, yet who are as patriotic as President Roosevelt, General MacArthur or the two Philadelphia psychiatrists.

All of which leads to one principal conclusion. Fifth columnists are doing these things. They are dangerous to our national unity and therefore to our national security. But they are done also by loyal, if muddleheaded Americans.

MacArthur for President?

The Draft MacArthur for President Clubs, and all others who co-operate with them, are doing an immeasurable disservice both to the cause of democracy and to the hero of the Philippines himself. We hope he will take strong steps to repudiate the movement.

The task given to General MacArthur is of surpassing importance. Even more vital is it that he should remain untarnished as a symbol of American military valor. But no man can run or be run for the Presidency without having every casual indiscretion of his life broadcast to the winds, and every real achievement belittled. This must not happen to MacArthur. The indomitable spirit of American arms which he personifies is infinitely more valuable than his candidacy for President possibly could be.

Draft Injustice

Dover, N. J., was proud of 102 selectees who were examined by draft board physicians and found physically fitted for Army service. There was a farewell breakfast, at which the mayor paid tribute to "the hardest bunch of fellows in many a year." A few hours later, 42 of the young men had been rejected by Army doctors and sent back to civilian life.

This is no novel story. From all over the country come similar tales of young men who have given up their jobs, closed out their businesses, broken up their homes and reported for service, only to be rejected on physical grounds.

Here is one field in which Selective Service could humanize the draft. There is no apparent reason why selectees should not receive final physical examinations before they are required to cut civilian ties and report for service.

Henderson Is Right

Price Czar Leon Henderson's letter to little Carol Joan Mercer of Los Angeles, deserves careful reading by adults.

"It is not necessary for you or your brother or anyone else to give up the use of sugar," he wrote. "There is enough sugar for all of us if it is shared properly. A proper amount of sugar in our diets is a nutritional necessity, and we must keep ourselves physically fit to win the war."

The half pound a week allowance was fixed as the amount which would care adequately but without waste for the human body's sugar requirement. It should be used.

Funny how doctors tell us not to worry about anything and then send a bill that worries us.

Regardless of how cheap a divorce is, it never will be a bargain.

The fellow who misses his regular street car to work is likely to catch it.

Home is any old place where a man hangs his hat on the floor.

Washington, May 26 — The grapevine from Rome says Mussolini will certainly be out of the war before next January or February (remember the date.)

The youth groups, which furnished the numerical strength of the fascist movement (the old people were never strong for it), lost their last illusion in Hitler's tieup with Laval.

All Italy's claims were against France. Hope for rebuilding a Roman empire in the Mediterranean rested with prospects of acquiring Tunisia and other French colonies.

But Laval's major policy is the protection of those colonies for France under Hitler. Italy has nothing left to fight for.

This, of course, is but the final blow, in the well known series of Italian misadventures, including German occupation, the desperate food shortage, the disinclination of fascist youth to fight with Hitler.

It will take time for the anti-Mussolini forces that are afoot in Italy to work their way up, but the army should be in charge within at most eight or nine months. Invasion of this weakest axis spot by forces of the United Nations would bring this result sooner.

Most thorough analysis of this new war capital of the world—in all its sprawling boomlike splendor and political bizzarerie—is presented in a new book, "Washington Is Like That," by W. M. Kiplinger, the non-political business letter writer.

The storied magnificence of Rome, Paris, London, Berlin is Washington's now, with its construction hastened conclusion of the vast office, memorial and park programs making it the most beautiful city on earth as well as the most important.

All it lacks is a great place in history, which it is acquiring and a recognition in literature, which Kiplinger proposes to start.

He tells it all, straight-forwardly, about the new dealers as well as the new domes, and for instance about labor becoming the wealthiest of landowning powers here next to the government itself.

He estimates labor real estate holdings here at $10,000,000.

The machinists financed construction of the large new Longfellow office building. The bricklayers loaned $300,000 to Evalyn Walsh McLean at 6 per cent to build the new post terminal (they got it from the bank at 3 per cent where she couldn't).

The bricklayers have $5,000,000 in liquid securities $8,000,000 in net assets. The United Mine Workers keep $4,000,000 in convertible securities and cash.

The house naval committee estimated that 101 of the 162 AFL international unions had $82,000,000 in 1941. The electricians spent a cool $1,000,000 on their convention, explaining that as they hold only one in twelve years they thought they would do it in a fitting manner. John Lewis spent $250,000 redecorating the University Club for UMW offices.

No one knows how much the unions have, says the Kiplinger book. Their finances are not published as a general policy. But inasmuch as labor is the only possessor of obviously great wealth which is not subject to confiscatory war taxes, or any taxes, it seems logical to assume that labor will be the only one to multiply its wealth out of this war.

Published A. P. figures of 211 merchant ships sunk in American waters since the start of the war includes only those announced. There have been innumerable others.

Precise numbers cannot be used for reasons of military secrecy, but the rate of all allied loss everywhere in the world for April 18 months of the war, before we got in.

It is true, however, that February was the worst month and a small decline has been noted each month since then.

The idea that the nazis are "massing on Moscow" got out because Berlin claimed capture of 32 villages near Smolensk. They are still 200 miles from Moscow.

Lodges and Patriotic Orders

Townsend Club No. 2—Will meet in I. O. O. F. hall at 7:45 o'clock Thursday evening.

W. R. C.—Purchase of a book of stamps was approved, a donation of $5 was voted for the Dixon Memorial association, and plans were made for participating in the Memorial Day parade, when members of the Dixon Woman's Relief corps, No. 218, met Monday afternoon in the G. A. R. hall.

Mrs. Mabel Beers, corps president, and Mrs. Ora Chapman, delegate, will attend the 59th annual convention of the Department of Illinois Woman's Relief corps, to be held in Springfield, June 9-11. Headquarters will be established at the Leland hotel.

At 3 p. m. Monday, June 8, a tablet and scroll will be dedicated in the National Headquarters, Seventh and Cook streets, in memory of past commander-in-chiefs, and the past national presidents of Illinois. A reception and open house will be held from 7 to 9 o'clock that evening.

The convention will be called to order Tuesday morning, and a campfire is planned for Tuesday evening. The department "Umbrella Parade" is to take place Wednesday morning, to be followed by an aides' luncheon.

All Junior club activities will take place on Monday in the Leland hotel ballroom. Mrs. Beers has been appointed to act as guard for the convention.

General orders were read from the national president, May L. Luchinger, pertaining to the observance of Flag Day, and the special funds, Victory V drive, scholarship and Win the War fund. Boy Scout News

Troop No. 85, Boy Scouts of America will hold their regular weekly meeting on Thursday evening at 7 p. m. Five new tenderfoot scouts will be inducted into the troop and two boys who transferred from other troops.

The troop expects to participate in the Memorial Day parade. Plans are being made for camping during the summer months. Opportunity is being given for new boys to enter the troop who desire to join in the camping this summer. Several hikes and outdoor meetings are also planned for the near future. Any boy over twelve years of age is welcome to visit the meetings. Rev. R. S. Wilson, pastor of the Bethel United Evangelical church, where the troop meets is scoutmaster of the troop.

massing has been impossible because of the bad weather in the northern half of the front. The blow, when it comes, will be aimed at the Donets basin in the south. Next few days should tell whether the flanking movements south of Kharkov are to develop into that drive.

Typically American feats of production accomplished on the home front in the winning of that great battle, continue to grow in their unrivaled scope.

It may now be said officially that aluminum production before the end of this year will be five times that of 1939. Magnesium sixty times. The tin plate industry has completed the changeover to the electrolytic process, using one third less tin than the old method. Jap varnish gums have been fully replaced by newly discovered synthetic resins. We are now independent of camphor and menthol from Japan.

No other nation, no other political or economic system anywhere in the history of the world, can approach what has been done in this country, since the defense program started.

Australia, Gen. Tojo warned India that "as long as British and American troops remain in India, Japan is inflexibly determined to annihilate them."

He said Australia was "now helplessly expected Japan's attack after the battle in the Coral Sea wiped away naval units put up for the defense of Australia."

While Japan's war leaders thus boasted of future conquests, allied fighting men scored new successes against the invaders on far-flung land and sky fronts.

On China's east coast, in the critical Chekiang province theater, Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's armies were reported to have started an offensive in an attempt to hamstring Japanese column storming at the gates of Kinkwa, Chekiang provisional capital.

Chinese dispatches said Gen. Chiang's troops were attacking in the Hangchow-Kashing-Wuhing sector 100 miles below Shanghai, behind the bases from which the Japanese drive against Kinkwa was launched.

Far to the west, in the Burma-China war zone, the Chinese position along the Burma Road was reported sharply improved as Chinese troops continued to push the invaders back from the Salween river and American "Flying Tigers" blasted Japanese bases repeatedly without meeting opposition.

American airmen bombed the Japanese three times with within 48 hours, inflicting great damage on the enemy's advanced bases.

Latest information indicated that the 150,000 Japanese troops in Burma may now be planning an invasion of India rather than a drive up the Burma Road into China.

shown a new upsurge of internal resistance to "collaboration." Laval has, in fact, proved at last to France that the Vichy "government" can govern nothing. The morass into which he is getting, deeper and deeper, has dispelled the myth that Petain labored so hard to maintain: that a spartan France, even in defeat, could deal on a basis of honor with the Nazi conqueror and hold on to what it had left.

Italy: The blackshirts' greed for French territory never has been far below the surface; it was, however, shushed by Germany as long as it appeared that Vichy might be able to arouse some popular French support for "collaboration." Whatever Germany may do about it now, there is no doubt of her anxiety to settle the question. It is keeping at least 300,000 well-equipped Italian troops in the French Alps maritimes border, when they might be dying for the "new order" below Kharkov. It is interesting also that Italy, once vociferous for "Tunisia, Corsica, Nice," now has lost her desire for Tunisia, which the French probably on German suggestion, hint they are willing to discuss.

When the warship arrived on the scene, it dropped many depth charges in the chase, today's report said.
The Brazilian press continued to attack Germany for the assaults on Brazilian ships and urged the government to begin an active defense with its planes and war ships, but the government permitted no word to be published of the sinkings of submarines off the coast by United States forces.

THREE SHIPS SUNK
Washington, May 27—(AP)—The navy announced today the torpedoing of a medium-sized British merchant vessel and a small Greek merchantman in the Atlantic and the sinking by shell fire of a United States trawler. The shellfire came from an enemy submarine. Survivors of all three vessels have been landed at an east coast port.

African armies were on the move again, with strong axis troop and tank columns advancing toward the main British defense lines.

Simultaneously, the Italian high command reported intense air activity over the Libyan desert battle theater—a familiar prelude to an offensive.

2. Reports of an axis squeeze on France to gain control of the immobilized French fleet.

3. Premier Pierre Laval's discussions with his naval chiefs.

4. Reports that 300,000 Italian troops were massing along the French border, ready to back up Italy's demand upon France for Tunisia, Corsica and Nice.

U. S. Officers Arrive
Countering these portents of axis strategy, London commentators said indications that a mighty allied aerial assault may be imminent to blast the way for a landing on the German-occupied "invasion coast."

The belief was further strengthened by the arrival in London of Lieut. Gen. Brehon B. Somervell, assistant chief of staff, U. S. Army supply division, to round out the United States military mission now conferring with British war leaders.

High significance was attached to General Somervell's arrival because of the fact that his division would handle the thousands of tons of food, ammunition and clothing needed to keep any major American expeditionary force in the field.

Approximately two-thirds of the top-ranking American general staff members now are in London.

MISSION COMPLETE
London, May 27—(AP)—Lieut. Gen. Brehon B. Somervell arrived here today to round out the United States military mission conferring with British war chiefs, and London commentators expressed belief a united air assault was planned to blast the way for a future allied landing on the German-occupied continental coast.

General Somervell heads the United States army supply division, which is charged with dividing the thousands of tons of food, clothing and munitions needed to keep an expeditionary force in the field.

Brigadier General Leroy Lutes, Charles P. Gross and William C. Lee accompanied him.

"Plans for a combined Anglo-American attack on the axis powers are being discussed," the Daily Telegraph said. "It can confidently be predicted that one outcome will be a great intensification of the air attack on Germany from the west."

Draw Liaison System
The Daily Mail said a liaison system "which both the United States and the RAF have stated to be 'wholly acceptable' has been drawn up," providing for separate operation of the air fleets, but coordination in strategy such as the selection of bombing targets.

The Daily Express said "the Americans have numbers of dive-bombers," which many military experts regard as essential to furnish close support for any ground operations in modern war. Britain has few such planes.

The United States officers conferred with the corresponding officers in Britain's air, sea and land services.

The American mission is headed by Lieut. Gen. Henry H. Arnold, head of the army air forces, and Rear Admiral John H. Towers, chief of naval aeronautics.

yesterday's developments other than to say "I'd still like to talk to Ziller."

Other Complaints Made
Londrigan, however, said Ziller had been at his Springfield home "since this thing broke" and that "no official or investigator has tried to question him at any time." He said that if authorities wanted to see Ziller in the future "they will find him where he has been all the time — at his home in Springfield."

Both Barrett and Coolidge said they had obtained statements from a number of truckers who contended they paid fees on the promise of obtaining jobs at the Kankakee and Elwood ordnance plants.

Barrett said one of the complaints was that Ziller collected $25 in the name of the political club from men applying for jobs at ordnance plants.

The complaints from truckers, Coolidge said, were that they were induced to buy trucks on the promise that they would receive government contracts on war plane construction work. The trucks purchased, Coolidge said, the men asserted they then were told they would have to pay a $300 advance commission and $50 a week to an agent, as well as a $50 union initiation fee.

Simultaneously with the rent control action Henderson named 19 area rent directors to administer the program, and released the maximum rent regulations for all housing accommodations except hotels, rooming and boarding houses. Regulations for hotels rooming houses will be issued before June 1.

The rules call for the registration by landlords of all rental dwelling units, whether occupied or not, some time in June. The date will be fixed later.

Exceptions to the "automatic reduction" principle are made in cases where the accommodations have been improved substantially, where an unfurnished dwelling is now rented as a furnished one, and where the rents on the base date were affected by relationship or personal friendship between landlord and tenant.

ernment, was continuing talks with Governor-General Admiral Jean Esteva of Tunisia and Admiral Jean Darlan, the chief of the defense forces.

Previous reports have stated that Laval was tentatively discussing cessions in Tunisia in an effort to satisfy broader Italian claims for Nice and Corsica.

Valuable to Axis
Observers said Tunisia would be valuable for axis operations and might satisfy the Italian clamor, and that at the same time Laval might feel he could risk a concession there where a concession of a piece of France's homeland would provoke too great a public reaction against him.

Admiral Esteva arrived in Vichy on an emergency visit yesterday. He has seen Laval already and was to confer today with Admiral Darlan, commander of French armed forces, and possibly with Marshal Petain.

On the basis of 1938 figures, there were 108,000 Frenchmen and 94,000 Italians among Tunisia's 2,600,000 inhabitants.

However, diplomatic sources said other and perhaps more vital factors than a territorial deal might lie behind axis pressure on Vichy.

Darlan Has Last Word
They mentioned particularly continuing German efforts to reach some understanding on use of the French fleet—even if for no greater purpose than to convey North African workers back to the continent to work for the axis in French industry.

Vichy sources, nevertheless, put little faith in London reports that Laval, faced with the German and Italian demands would permit German sailors aboard France's warships for training.

Darlan would be the final authority for such a concession and observers said France was unlikely to make it because the fleet is her ace in dickering with the axis.

Other reliable foreign diplomatic informants felt that the present fascist pressure was designed as much as anything else to help keep Italian troops at home, away from the Russian battlefields.

Women of America by Thousands seek to Enroll in Army

History Made at Army Recruiting Station of Country Today

Washington, May 27 (AP)—Women enrolled today regular army recruiting offices for the first time in history—seizing selection to be among the first candidates for officer commissions in the Women's Army auxiliary Corps.

If the line of applicant at the Washington recruiting office was an indication of the nationwide response, thousands will apply for places among the first 45,000 candidates to report at Ft. Des Moines, Ia., about July 15.

Applications will be accepted through June 4 but evident many women here thought an early application would help their chances. Eight stood in line before the recruiting office opened. When it opened there was none of the special pink application blanks on hand and nearly 50 women were in line when they arrived 4 minutes later.

The first woman said she was Sybil Batchelor, 21, who bought her education in physics another science subjects at the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina would qualify her for a radio assignment. She now works in the Bureau of Standards.

From those enrolled throughout the nation each of the nine corps area headquarters will select 60 candidates for recommendation to the war department. The department will select 40 for training. It will also designate 90 candidates from members of the craft training service to make a total 450.

Laughing Eyes, a 29-year-old Creek Indian, in full tribal garb, was among the first of more than 250 women who stormed early recruiting offices in New York to apply for enlistment. She said she was a graduate of Haell Institute, Lawrence, Kan., and her brother, Straight Arrow, had joined the navy last month.

Chicago's "first-in-line" was Mrs. Glenn Bruce of suburban Oak Park, who at 12:30 a. m. jumped out on the recruiting office doorstep with a blanket and a book on the Battle of China, and took the 7:30 a. m. opening. Divorcee who said her age is military secret, Mrs. Bruce reported she is "free for anything I give me." She is a granddaughter of the Civil War General, George Pickett.

8,227 Lee Residents Pledge to Purchase War Bonds, Stamps

Pledge to Buy Federal Securities of Nearly One Million Dollars

County Chairman Oliver Gehant of West Brooklyn, who directed the recent War bond campaign in Lee county, today announced the result, which is most gratifying. However, it was stated that some individuals had not been solicited and these are urged to contact their local chairmen at once and make their pledges.

"I wish to thank all of the local chairmen and the members of their committees and the minute men and women for the work done and the cooperation given in our first real War bond drive," Chairman Gehant stated. "The Dixon Evening Telegraph and the other newspapers of the county deserve much credit for the publicity given the campaign as it progressed."

"Now the task will be to see that the purchases of bond keep pace with the monthly allotments assigned to Lee county and I feel that I can count on the help of the same individuals who so graciously gave of their time and efforts at the opening campaign," he stated.

MODERN "KNIGHTS" Fantastic trappings that recall knights of the Middle Ages are worn by horsemen of some of the Djerna tribes of the Niger region of Africa. The uniforms of the steeds and their riders are gaily-colored kapok mattresses, while the helmets are of sheet iron and copper.

Pres. Wilson of Gen.
Electric Claims Plenty of Power for War Plants

Schenectady, N. Y., May 27—(AP)—Americas industrial power capacity is sufficient to keep the wheels of war factories running at top speed indefinitely, Charles E. Wilson, president of General Electric Company, said today.

He told correspondents on the National Association of Manufacturers "Production for Victory" tour recent additions to the country's power capacity have already raised the potential supply 10 percent and "new plants and auxiliaries will be in operation before the end of the year."

"The increased capacity, plus new interconnecting links with existing sources, will more than meet the country's power needs" Wilson said.

He added that General Electric has on hand orders for turbine and generating equipment totaling 19,000,000-horsepower capacity.

Please Help

There are over eighty soldiers' graves in the local cemetery. That means there must be over eighty squads with a leader and escort. Everyone so far as possible, should meet at the Presbyterian church to be assigned into squads. All men, both young and old, should meet at the American Legion hall to act as escorts. There is no doubt but what there will be plenty of help after it is understood. Parents in the community are urged to bring their children and if possible, march with them. There will be plenty of flowers that each child may have a bouquet for the grave they decorate.

Commencement Program

Auditor Holds Checks of Johnson and Hodges

Springfield, Ill., May 27—(AP)—The office of State Auditor Arthur C. Lueder, acting on the advice of Attorney General George F. Barrett, announced today the auditor was withholding the May salary payments of Sveinbjorn Johnson, counsel for the University of Illinois, and of Johnson's assistant, N. D. Hodges.

Barrett ordered the two attorneys severed from the state payroll in a letter May 7, contending the university lacked authority to engage its own counsel. The board subsequently adopted a resolution protesting against Barrett's stand and directing the state auditor to continue paying Johnson's $9,000 a year salary, and Hodges' $3,000 annual pay.

A spokesman for Lueder said today "we have no course but to follow the instructions of the attorney general".

The salary vouchers held up by Lueder were those due for payment on May 28. The university staff members receive monthly salary checks.

P. G. A. TOURNEY . . . our Country Club Pro, Ralph Stonehouse, was blazing up the fairways in the first round of the qualifications in golfdom's P. G. A. annual classic at Atlantic City, New Jersey . . . but he ran into some heart-breaking ill luck in the second round which barely eliminated him . . . Ralph shot the Seaview Country Club course in a 71 for his first trip which is a stroke under par and he was immediately considered as one of the threats . . . but in the next eighteen hole play the misfortune happened . . . he routed a 78 which wouldn't allow him to qualify . . . however his total of 149 was only two strokes out of the running . . . and his 71 was only five strokes over Cooper's 66 which won the medalist honors . . . and it was also the lowest count of all the some 65 boys that didn't qualify which is indeed an accomplishment because this annual meet brings together the best golfers in the country . . .

CALLED OFF . . . of man weather has been bothering us since this season than in many years gone by . . . all spring the numerous activities planned by various groups have been either stopped after started or not started at all . . . and now the annual Country Club St. event which was slated for tomorrow is postponed indefinitely . . . a date will be announced later . . .

TODAY'S ORCHID . . . toss goes to Carl Appell, track mentor over at the DeKalb Teachers' Camp . . . many are the times we've seen athletes in the pink of condition, following a long and hard season suddenly drop their conditioning and training and then actually "go to pot physically" . . . well Carl has the right slant on things . . . even though the DeKalb track champs have completed their season they must report three times a week for light workouts which will gradually taper off their peak condition and won't cause any serious physical trouble from sudden letdowns . . . this is true with all sports and is most indicative in the fight circles . . . boxers who after a long training period for a scrap suddenly changing their routine generally become re-actively slow when they start training again . . . this has been one of the outstanding features of Joe Louis' program, his top physical shape can be accounted to smart handling; for Joe's program, following a fight, always calls for light tapering workouts instead of a sudden let up in training . . .

REPRIMAND . . . an anonymous call buzzed us this morn and did our ears burn . . . we were severely taken to the mat and we still fear that "libel" might be pending . . . and all because we called that sea-going craft which belongs to Dale Flynn and Reid Frey, a "scow" . . . we were informed "there's not a more water-worthy craft on the river" . . . we humbly apologize for calling it a "scow" and we heartily agree to the craft's being "water-worthy", because we "seen" it with our own eyes, and with all due consideration we can honestly call it a "tub" . . .

Marion Palmer was victorious over Rosemary Baker of Dixon 6-2 and 6-1 . . . Elda Robbins of Sterling defeated Kathleen Moore 6-1 and 6-0 . . . the Sterling gals have had a top-notch season of it and boast an excellent record . . .

Braves Cling to Second Post of Senior Loop by Letting Down Giants 4 to 2; Al Javery Performs Six-Hit Hurling Against Giants

(By Associated Press)

It is high time for someone to introduce Howard (Spud) Krist to the Major League public because his pitching record for the St. Louis Cardinals is one of the most remarkable in the big show—15 victories and one defeat spread over four seasons.

The tall righthander won 10 games without a loss in 1941 and he has won two more without a setback this season.

Krist's specialty is relief and it was in this role that he earned his second success yesterday as the Cardinals curbed the Chicago Cubs 3-1 in ten innings.

For seven scoreless innings the game was a pitching struggle between Max Lanier and Vern Olsen, making his first start since breaking two fingers on his pitching hand during the Cubs' spring training.

Terry Moore broke the spell with a home in the eighth and the Cubs came roaring back in the ninth to tie the score.

Three men singled, one run was in and two were out when Krist stroled to the mound. He promptly forced Olson to pop to Shortstop Martin Marion. Then in the tenth Enos Slaughter and Coaker Triplett knocked in two St. Louis runs and Krist checked the Cubs although giving up a single and a walk.

In the day's only other National League game the Boston Braves retained their grip on second place by turning back the New York Giants 4-2 on the six-hit hurling of Al Javery.

Yanks Continue Pace
The New York Yankees continued their domination of the American League by belting the Boston Red Sox 9-2 with a 13-hit assault while Atley Donald pitched six-hit ball. It was the World Champions' 15th victory in their last 18 games and Boston's 11th loss in 15 contests.

The Bombers hit three home runs in one game for the first time this season and two of them, by Tom Henrich and Charley Keller, came in the first inning, each with a man on base. Frank Cross settled off with one in the fifth. In rebuttal Ted Williams hits his 12th of the season with one on in the third for Boston's only run.

Washington smeared the Philadelphia Athletics 8-3 as Steve Sundra kept 11 hits spaced and pitched carefully in the pinches.

A pair of streaks evaporated under the lights in the league's two night games.

At Cleveland, Les Fleming punched out a ninth inning single that drove Jeff Heath and Buster Mills across the plate for the Tribe's first triumph in six starts. The 2 to 1 decision was the seventh setback of the season for the Chicago White Sox's Edgar Smith.

The St. Louis Browns' four game victory stride was broken up by the Detroit Tigers, whose Al Benton allowed only four blows in the 3 to 1 struggle. Benton also knocked out a double that was the main ingredient of the first Tiger tally.

Three Eye League Race a Battle Between Cedar Rapids and Springfield

(By The Associated Press)

Six percentage points separated Springfield from Cedar Rapids today in their hot first place battle in the Three Eye League.

While weather took care of Cedar Rapids last night, forcing a postponement of its game with Evansville, Springfield capitalized on the three-hit pitching of Williams and blanked Decatur, 3 to 0. It was the Browns' 14th win in 20 starts. Cedar Rapids has won 12 and lost five.

Waterloo defeated Madison, 8 to 5, in yesterday's other game, rallying for five runs in the ninth inning to win.

A temple near Kunning, the capital of Yunnan Province, China, is made entirely of bronze.

Why We'll Win

Christy Mathewson, Jr., son of the immortal baseball pitcher, returns to Army Air Corps as acting captain after hard struggle involving loss of his wife and a leg in air crash, months in a hospital and a rejection by the Army.

Jinx Luck of Edgar Smith Still Lingers

Cleveland—(AP)—Les Fleming singled home a pair of runs in the ninth to snap the Indians' losing streak at five games and give them a 2 to 1 victory over the Chicago White Sox under the stadium lights last night. It was Edgar Smith's seventh straight loss of the season.

The Tribe pulled the game out of the fire to give Mel Harder his third win of the season.

Ken Keltner walked to open the last of the ninth, but was forced at second as Jeff Heath bunted. Buster Mills, who plays center field in games against left-handed pitching, doubled and Heath went to third. Fleming's single to center ended the contest.

Chicago's run also came in the ninth.

Smith held the Indians to two singles until the sixth. Box score:

Cardinals Score Twice in Tenth to Defeat Cubs

Chicago—(AP)—The Chicago Cubs momentarily snatched a hard-earned victory away from the Cardinals yesterday, but the Red Birds scored two runs in the tenth inning to break up a one to one tie and defeat the Chicago team, 3 to 1, to sweep the two-game series.

Neither side had scored during a pitcher's duel between Max Lanier and Vern Olsen until the eighth when Terry Moore blasted his second homer of the season into the left field bleachers.

The Cubs came back to tie the score and knock Lanier out in the ninth with a run which Pinch-Hitter Rip Russell drove in with a single.

Olsen, making his first start of the season since breaking two fingers on his pitching hand during spring training, weakened in the tenth and the Cards counted two runs on as many hits and three walks to win the game. Box score:

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
Wide World Sports Columnist

New York, May 27—Baseball's big wartime test may be the twilight all-star game here July 6. . . If that doesn't draw a crowd, the ball clubs might as well figure on going on a week-end basis for the duration. . . So far the customers have been turning out in great numbers on Sundays but even the Army-Navy Relief games haven't pulled them in week-days except in Brooklyn. . . Cleveland, out to beat the Dodgers' mark after a big newspaper buildup, drew only 7,959 last Monday and St. Louis did about the same. . . Maybe this only proves that most folks are too busy working to win the war to take time off from their jobs to see ball games, but it also proves that there's a condition that the clubs will have to face. . . P. S.: Did you notice the Dodgers and Phils played their twilight game in 1:28? Apparently the way to make ball players hustle is to delay their dinners.

Chicago's Cubs and the Cincinnati Reds were paired in the second half of the program. Paid admission was demanded of everyone entering the ball park, including players, baseball writers, ushers and vendors.

Camp Grant won all three games played against the sailors in their first meetings a quarter of a century ago.

Today the two posts again have strong clubs. Great Lakes has won 16 of 20 games this season, their last 13 in a row. Camp Grant has 11 victories in 13 starts and until yesterday's 3-1 setback at Chanute Field, had boasted an eight game winning streak.

Joe Rogalski, one of the many former Minor League players now at Camp Grant, was named to pitch for the soldiers. He has won five straight games. Don Dunker, former Indiana University hurler, has won three and lost one game, was the sailors' choice.

The sailor lineup includes such former Major League players as Benny McCoy, Johnny Lucadello, Joe Grace, Don Padgett, and Frank Ptiyak. Johnny Rigney, former Chicago White Sox pitcher, enlisted recently, but may not be available for today's game.

Service Dept.

According to his wife, Capt. Hewitt Wheelers, the flier recently cited by the president for heroism, was just a pretty good quarterback for a 145-pounder when he played for the University of Texas, but his best sport is poker. . . Bob Adkins, who played quarterback for Green Bay in the playoff against the Chicago Bears last November, has reached Australia with a hospital unit and Smiley Johnson, guard, is in Hawaii with the Marines. . . Speedy guys, those Packers.

Last Laugh

Down at the P. G. A. tournament, Corp. Vic Ghezzi encountered Sam Snead, who will go into the Navy right after the affair ends. . . Vic remarked, "Sam, Gene Sarazen wanted you to go to Australia two years ago for a $5,000 guarantee. You didn't take it. Now it looks as if you will go there for nothing."

Cooper is Medalist Winner in Opening Rounds of P. G. A.

Snead and Byrd Match Today Draws Attention

Atlantic City, May 27—(AP)—Sixteen exhausting 36-hole matches were down for settlement today in the opening round of the Professional Golfers Association Championship at the Sea View club, but about nine-tenths of the interest was concentrated on one battle—Sammy Snead vs. Sammy Byrd.

Byrd, of course, is the former Yankee outfielder who quit the diamond to see if he could make a better living at golf.

He has blossomed into a consistently fine golfer, capable of giving any one a tussle. Though Snead was logical choice to beat him today, there was nothing foregone about it at all. However, some thought Byrd's two great qualifying rounds—67—72—might have earned him a little better break in the draw.

Only one player out-shot Byrd the last two days. That was Harry Cooper, the Minneapolis veteran, who recaptured his wizardry of a half dozen years ago to score 67-71—138 and win the medal. The only other player to do as well as Byrd was Corp. Jim Turney. Cooper's first round opponent was Mike Turnesa of Elmwood, while Corporal Jim met E. J. (Dutch) Harrison of Camp Hill, Pa.

As for Snead, he steadied after his opening day's 73 and came in with a 71 yesterday, clipping a stroke off Sea View's par and finishing with a 34 on his second nine.

National Open Champion Craig Wood, who speared a pair of 70's to qualify in fourth place, drew Rod Munday of Toledo, Ohio, as his first opponent. Byron Nelson, the pre-tournament favorite, figured not to be seriously extended by Harry Nettleblatt of Avon, Conn. Ben Hogan drew Ben Loving of Long Meadow, Mass.

Another who, like Byrd, was extended no favors by the matching-up committee was Corp. Vic Ghezzi, the defending champion. He was paired against Jimmy Demaret of Detroit, who shot a brace of steady 72's the last two days. The corporal was qualified automatically. Sam Parks, Jr., former National Open Champion, who qualified in a play-off with seven others at 147, faced a tough rival in Harold (Jug) McSpaden.

A CROP OF "PANAMAS"

HERE is a field of "Panamas" and they didn't grow here either! They were carefully woven by natives whose families for generations have been making this fine head gear which we call "Panama." In Ecuador—where the finest of these hats are made—they are named after the village in which they are woven. The best known are Jipijapas and Montecristis; the latter are the finest.

The natives weaving these hats are among the most intriguing sights to be seen by travelers visiting Ecuador on the fortnightly cruises from New York. In the little factory there are from four to ten natives weaving hats in various stages of development. They work only during the cool of the morning and late afternoon, in dimly lighted rooms, because sun light is apt to dry the straw and make it crack. Each weaver sits in front of a block upon which he nimble braids the straw, moistening his finger tips in a half coconut shell. The finer the weave, the more delicately is this moisture applied. In making a Montecristi the weaver starts with about sixty strands of fibre, increasing these as he builds the crown until at the edge of the brim the total about one thousand fibres. So fine is the mesh of a perfect specimen that it can be rolled into a quill which may be passed through a finger ring, and the finished article resembles a fine cloth fabric. Edna Mae Stark.

Federal Prisoner on Tax Evasion to Be Released

Washington, May 27—(AP)—M. L. Annenberg, Philadelphia publisher, serving a three-year sentence at Lewisburg, Pa., federal prison after conviction in the largest individual income tax evasion case on record, will be paroled June 11 because of ill-health, the justice department announced today.

This will cut five months off the so-called "minimum term," since Annenberg, who is 65, was scheduled for release November 11. The full term runs until July 21, 1943, and until that time he will be under supervision of the United States parole board.

Ice Deliveries Regulated By the U. S. Government

The Office of Defense Transportation has issued the following orders affecting the delivering of ice:

EFFECTIVE FRIDAY, MAY 15th

Sec. 501.32 prohibits any "local carrier" (Ice Company or ice dealer) from:

(a)—Making any special deliveries except to hospitals, the Armed Forces of the United States or in cases of emergency in which the public health, life and safety are imperiled.

(b)—Making any call backs.

(c)—Making more than one delivery per day to any one person except in cases where special deliveries are authorized; provided, however that when a single day's requirements of any customer exceed the capacity of a single truck, such additional truck loads as may be necessary will be considered as one trip.

The above order makes it unlawful for us

1. To make more than one delivery to any one customer.
2. To retrace our steps over the route.
3. To make special deliveries.

The drivers will call the office at 8:30 a. m. and any orders received that are located on an unfinished portion of the route can be delivered.

EFFECTIVE MONDAY, JUNE 1st

Sec. 501.33 provides that effective June 1, each "local carrier" (ice company or dealer) shall reduce the total monthly mileage of his trucks to 75% or less of the total mileage of such trucks in operation during the same month last year, exclusive of the mileage eliminated as a result of discontinuing special deliveries, call backs and more than one call per day to any one customer. It is important to note that this 25% reduction is in addition to the mileage reduction provided for in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of Sec. 501.32. In the event a "local carrier" was not in business during any corresponding month last year, the mileage operated during May, 1942, must be used as the base for computing the required 25% reduction in permissible monthly mileage.

In order to meet these restrictions, we can deliver only every other day to residential customers. Monday, Wednesday and Friday to some; Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday to the balance. All business firms will have one daily delivery.

Where the ice will not carry over from Friday to Monday, or from Saturday to Tuesday, we will arrange to include these residential stops so that food protection can be maintained.

We urge your cooperation in leaving your doors so the Ice Man can get in when you are going to be out. We pledge ourselves to do our best, working within the limits imposed by the order.

In a recent advertisement we inadvertently stated that the car illustrated was purchased April 4, 1937. The car was actually purchased in April, 1938. All other facts—including the mileage of 103,555 as of March 1, 1942—are correct as stated in the advertisement.
